Local Law #4 (Introduced) of the year 1982

A local law to Provide For A Partial Tax Exemption of Real Property Owned By Certain Persons With Limited Income Who Are Sixty-Five Years of Age or Over and Repealing Local Law No. 6 for the Year 1980.

By: Messr. W. Walsh, et al

Be it enacted by the County Legislature of the County of Rensselaer as follows:

SECTION 1. The purpose of this local law is to grant a partial exemption from taxation to the extent of fifty per centum of the assessed valuation of real property which is owned by certain persons with limited income who are sixty-five years of age or over, or real property owned by husband and wife, one of whom is sixty-five years of age or over, meeting the requirements set forth in section four hundred sixty-seven of the Real Property Tax Law, as amended by Chapter 475 of the Laws of 1982.

SECTION 2. Real Property owned by persons sixty-five years of age or over, or real property owned by husband and wife, one of whom is sixty-five years of age or over, shall be exempt from county taxes to the extent of fifty per centum of the assessed valuation subject to the following conditions:

a. The owner of all of the owners must file an application, on forms prescribed by the State Board of Equalization and Assessment, annually in the assessor's office on or before taxable status date.

b. The income of the owner or the combined income of the owners must not exceed $10,500.00 for the income tax year prior to the date that the application is filed. Where title is vested in either the husband or wife, the combined income of husband and wife may not exceed such sum.

c. Title to the property must be vested in the owner, or if there is more than one owner, in all owners for at least twenty-four consecutive months prior to the date that the application is filed. For purposes of this exemption a period of prior ownership of real property may be combined and deemed consecutive with the period of ownership of real property for which application for exemption is made where:

1. by devise or descent sole title to property passes to a surviving spouse from a deceased spouse possessing sole title to the same property at the time of death:

2. there is a transfer of all or part of title to the same property between husband and wife:

3. property has been acquired to replace property formerly owned by the applicant or applicants and taken by eminent domain or other involuntary proceeding, except a tax sale:

4. a residence is sold and replaced with another within one year and is in the same assessment unit.

d. The property must be used exclusively for residential purposes, be occupied in whole or in part by the owners, and constitute the legal residence of the owners.

e. At least sixty days prior to taxable status date, the assessing authority shall mail to each person who was granted exemption pursuant to this local law on the latest completed assessment roll an application form and a notice that such application must be filed on or before taxable status date and be approved in order for the exemption to be granted. Failure to mail any such application form and notice of the failure of such person to receive the same shall not prevent the levy, collection and enforcement of the payment of the taxes on the property owned by such person.

SECTION 3. This local law shall take effect January 1, 1983 and shall apply to assessment rolls prepared on the basis of taxable status dates occurring on and after such date.

SECTION 4. This local law shall supersede Local Law No. 6 for the year 1980 which law is hereby repealed by this act, as of December 31, 1982.
