

ALAN R. MOORE
1923-1991

FAMILY HISTORY:

Alan R. Moore was born in Walloomsac, New York on May 30, 1923 to parents Leo Moore and Caroline Moore. Alan had 1 sister, Marjorie and 1 brother, Leo. Alan grew up in Hoosick Falls and later moved to Walloomsac, New York. He retired in Bristol, Tennessee.

EDUCATION:

Alan attended Hoosick Falls High School.

HISTORY:

Alan entered into the United States Army on January 18, 1943. He worked as a Field Lineman serving in Northern France, Rhineland, Ardennes, and Central Europe during WWII. He was honorable discharged on January 10, 1946. For his brave and honorable service to his country, Private First Class Alan R. Moore was awarded the Good Conduct Medal, the Victory Medal, the European-African-Middle Eastern Theater Campaign Ribbon, and a Certificate of Merit Citation.

PERSONAL:

Alan married Nancy (Chatfield) Moore on March 11, 1947 in Schaghticoke, New York. He was the father of 1 daughter, Patricia and 2 sons; Thomas and Timothy. He was blessed with 10 grandchildren; Carol, Ben, David, Toby, Rebecca, Amy, Tammy, Todd, Sarah and Diane and 3 great-grandchildren.

WORK EXPERIENCE:

He was employed with WOPI radio station as a sales representative in Bristol, Tennessee.

COMMUNITY ACTIVITIES/ORGANIZATIONS:

Alan was a member of the Blountville Presbyterian Church. He enjoyed painting and he loved cars.

Sadly, Alan R. Moore passed away on July 13, 1991 and was buried at Memorial Gardens Cemetery in Blountville, Tennessee.