

Alan J. Morrill
1925-2012

FAMILY

Alan J. Morrill was born in Schenectady, New York on August 23, 1925 to parents Giles and Alice (Dwyer) Morrill. Alan had 2 brothers: James and Giles and 1 sister, Joann.

HISTORY:

EDUCATION:

He graduated from Nott Terrace High School in Schenectady, NY. He completed 2 years at Siena College and attended Presbyterian College in Clinton, SC. He relocated to Troy in 1992 after he retired.

HISTORY:

Alan was inducted into the United States Army Air Force in Albany, New York on November 4, 1943. He rose to the ranks and became a Corporal. His military occupation was being an instructor during World War II. He was discharged on February 17, 1946 at Fort Dix, New Jersey. For his brave and honorable service to his country, Corporal Alan J. Morrill was awarded the American Service Medal, Good Conduct Medal and World War II Victory Medal.

PERSONAL:

Alan was the proud father on three sons: Alan, Jr., Mark and Michael and the loving grandfather of Tyler. He was the loving companion of Kathleen Dwyer.

WORK

He retired from the Good Year Tire Co. located in the Port of Albany after more than 30 years of employment, as the Distribution Manager.

EXPERIENCE:

COMMUNITY

He was a member of the Colonie Elks 2192. Alan loved camping, working on cars, traveling, spending winters in Myrtle Beach, South Carolina, cooking and target practicing with his sons. Most of all, he enjoyed spending time with his family.

ACTIVITIES/ORGANIZATIONS:

Sadly, Alan J. Morrill passed away on December 24, 2012 and was buried in St. Peter's Cemetery in Troy, New York.