WHEREAS, This Resolution is filed with the Rensselaer County Legislature by the Rensselaer County Executive; and

WHEREAS, Section 2.02 of the Rensselaer County Charter states: "Members of the County Legislature shall be elected at the General election in odd-numbered years for terms of four (4) years"; and

WHEREAS, Section 2.05 of the Rensselaer County Charter requires members of the County Legislature to be elected in odd numbered years; and

WHEREAS, Section 3.03.A of the Rensselaer County Charter imposes a duty on the County Executive to "execute and enforce all laws"; and

WHEREAS, Section 155.1.(f) of the Alternative County Government Law imposes a duty on the County Executive to "[s]ee that all laws of the state and all county acts pertaining to the administration of county government are enforced"; and

WHEREAS, It is necessary to commence civil litigation to protect Rensselaer County's Home Rule powers and preserve its duly adopted Rensselaer County Charter; now, therefore, be it;

RESOLVED, That, within budgeted appropriations, and in accordance with and pursuant to the Rensselaer County Charter, the Rensselaer County Executive and Rensselaer County Attorney are authorized, and, in the case of the Rensselaer County Attorney, the Rensselaer County Attorney is hereby directed, to commence such actions, enter into agreements, take such further actions, and execute such documents on behalf of the County and/or the County Legislature as they deem appropriate to implement the intent of this resolution.

RESOLUTION IN SUPPORT OF THE UNITED STATES POST OFFICE COMMEMORATING BETSY DOYLE ON A UNITED STATES STAMP

WHEREAS, American women of every culture, class, and ethnic background have made historic contributions to the growth and strength and character of our Nation, State, and County in recorded and unrecorded ways; and

WHEREAS, Betsy Doyle was born around 1790 and through her years known as: Betsy, Fannie and Mary; and

WHEREAS, Betsy's husband, Andrew Doyle was born in St. David's, Canada in 1788 and like many women from this time, some of Betsy's history is unknown; and

WHEREAS, Andrew Doyle enlisted as a private in the First Regiment of United States Artillery, commanded by Colonel John Roger Fenwick at Fort Niagara on February 2, 1810 when tensions with Britain were heating up; and

WHEREAS, Betsy accompanied her husband Andrew to Fort Niagara, where they had four children; and

WHEREAS, Accompanying her husband to Fort Niagara, Betsy would have been put to work as a washerwoman or hospital matron, doing most likely the drudge work of cleaning soiled linen, cleaning rooms and preparing food; and

WHEREAS, In June of 1812 war was declared against Great Britain and on October 13, 1812, the United States decided to invade Canada resulting in the Battle of Queenston; and

WHEREAS, On the afternoon of October 12, 1812 Betsy's husband Andrew marched from Fort Niagara to Lewiston Landing to join the battle in Queenston. The following day, October 13, 1812 following a fierce battle with the British Army, Andrew was captured and deemed "Subjects of the Crown" by the British; and

WHEREAS, Andrew was taken to Quebec and then aboard a British Warship and sailed to England to stand trial as traitors to the Crown; and

WHEREAS, Betsy, having no knowledge of her husband's circumstances at this time, remained at Fort Niagara; and

Betsy's Heroism

WHEREAS, On November 21, 1812 at 6:00pm the British stationed at Fort George opened fire with their batteries of guns and cannons on Fort Niagara. Fort Niagara returned heavy fire. Among the artillery barrage, the Americans on the rooftops of buildings in Fort Niagara fired "Hot Shot" from cannons; and

WHEREAS, Hot Shot is non-explosive cannonballs heated red hot for the purpose of setting fire to enemy buildings, ships or equipment. Loading the hot shot was difficult and dangerous. The hot iron could cause gunpowder to explode prematurely in the cannon, wounding or killing anyone nearby; and

WHEREAS, Betsy carried red-hot cannonballs from a fire to the 6-pound cannon mounted on the roof of the mess-hall; and

WHEREAS, Although one man was killed and five others wounded while loading hot shot, Betsy survived, and her bravery was mentioned in the official reports. The story of her actions spread quickly among officers stationed in the region. Reading: Betsy's Heroism is Recorded in the Journal of Lt. Colonel George Mcfeely, Commander of Fort Niagara. "One man was killed and four wounded from the bursting of one of our twelve pounders, this was occasioned by a hot ball which had expanded by the heat and got fast in the gun, where a vacuum was formed and when fired burst into ten thousand pieces. Another twelve pounder went off when the man was in the act of ramming and took off both his hands about the wrist, this was owing to the gun getting very hot and the man at the vent having no thumb stool (stall). The extraordinary bravery of a female drew the attention of all our garrison: her name was Betsy Doyle, her husband was taken prisoner at Queenston in the fall under General Van Rensselaer. She attended and served one of the guns with hot shot during the day of the cannonading. She would take the ball tongs from any of the men, run to the fire, take up the hot shot, put it in the cannon, and run for another; this she continued for the whole of the day". I mentioned this circumstance in my official letter to General Smyth; and

WHEREAS, Betsy's journey was not over; and

WHEREAS, In early December of 1813, Fort Niagara fell to the British. In a letter dated April 5, 1814 written by Colonel Simon Larned, Commander of Greenbush Cantonment he stated the following account: "The day before the Enemy took the fort (December 19, 1813), she encouraged the militia who was rather timid, by putting on the dress and arms of a soldier and went on Guard and stood her turn through a very dark and rainy night. She, the next day, continued at her House until the Enemy British and Indians had almost surrounded her, when she fortunately escaped with four children, the eldest about 14."; and

WHEREAS, On December 19, 1813 Betsy and the children fled with whatever they had on their backs heading East to escape the British forces. Having nowhere to go, certainly not to her in-laws in Canada, she headed to the hub of the US Army at Greenbush Cantonment, a 310 mile walk in the winter; and

WHEREAS, In April of 1814 Betsy and three of the four children (It is unknown at this time what happened to the fourth child) arrived at Greenbush Cantonment; and

WHEREAS, Upon arriving at Greenbush Cantonment, it was evident the long winter journey had taken its toll on Betsy. Colonel Larned wrote: "She is now in my Kitchen and convalescing from a fever. She appears to be an industrious and worthy woman." Betsy knew her husband, Andrew was prisoner of the British and taken to England. After the war ended she stayed on at Greenbush Cantonment working in the hospital and awaiting the arrival of her husband and, at one point, it was wrongly determined that Andrew had died in the harsh conditions of the British prison; and

WHEREAS, Andrew Doyle was never tried and was released from prison in 1815 and returned to America; but he was unable to find Betsy; and

WHEREAS, Andrew arrived back in the United States through Castle Island, Boston, MA on August 14, 1815. Unable to locate Betsy, he assumed she was dead. On January 17, 1819, Andrew married Nancy Sherman of Connecticut. Together they had a son and daughter. Nancy Sherman Doyle died in Providence, Rhode Island on December 31, 1861 at the age of 81. Andrew Doyle died on July 29, 1875 at the age of 87; and

WHEREAS, Betsy Doyle died at Greenbush Cantonment on April 2, 1819. In a letter written by Lt. Henry Smith of the 2 US Infantry Regiment, Acting Post Commandant of Greenbush Cantonment to Brigadier General Daniel Parker on April 4, 1819 stating: "You will perceive that Mrs. Doyle the nurse has not been paid in a year. During the whole of that time she has been in the faithful discharge of her duty at this Post, and to my knowledge, nearly the whole of that time Maj. Worth, (late commandant here) has been endeavoring, by correspondence with Paymaster Albright, Dr. Le Baron, the Paymaster General plus others to procure it for her, in vain. On Major Worth leaving the Post, I enclosed a copy the Muster rolls, A. to Surgeon General Lovell, stating the case plus requesting his attention to the business. Since then, nearly three months have elapsed and the Doctor. has not favored me with an answer of any kind, nor attended, as I can hear to the business. About a month since, Mrs. Doyle was confined by illness to her bed, and the day before yesterday she died and I am sorry to say, her death was accelerated by the want of those necessities which her pay would have procured-She left a daughter whose father (a soldier) is also dead and who is now left friendless on the world without any possible means of support and it is on her account I have to request your interference to procure, for her the pay so hardly earned and so justly owed her mother. -Independent of the calls of humanity, duty compels me to make the above statement; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That the Rensselaer County Legislature did proudly declare April 2024 as Betsy Doyle Month in Rensselaer County and fully support the efforts of the East Greenbush Town Historian to commemorate Betsy on a United States Stamp to further recognize this amazing woman and share her story of bravery and heroism in such trying times; and, be it further

RESOLVED, Betsy Doyle's story continues to inspire and give strength to men and women around the world, two hundred and five years since her death and Rensselaer County will continue to honor her and tell her story; and, be it further

Resolution No. P/131/24

RESOLUTION RECOGNIZING APRIL 21 - 27, 2024, AS NATIONAL CRIME VICTIMS' RIGHTS WEEK IN RENSSELAER COUNTY

WHEREAS, Since 1981, National Crime Victims' Rights Week (NCVRW) is a time to renew our commitment to serving all victims of crime, to acknowledge the achievements in victim services and allied professions, to honor those who have gone above and beyond in their service to others, and to remember crime victims and survivors; and

WHEREAS, Every April, the Office for Victims of Crime leads communities throughout the country in their annual observances of NCVRW. The 43rd anniversary of NCVRW will be observed April 21 - 27, 2024; and

WHEREAS, The 2024 theme asks all of us—friends, family members, neighbors, colleagues, community leaders, victim service providers, criminal justice practitioners, and health professionals—how we can help crime victims. This year's theme is a call-to-action for us all to create safe environments for crime victims to share what happened to them. By doing so, we're able to offer support, options for life-saving services, and, most importantly, hope; and

WHEREAS, This commemorative week celebrates the energy, perseverance and commitment that launched the victims' rights movement, inspired its progress, and continues to advance the cause of justice for crime victims; and

WHEREAS, Crime can leave a lasting impact on any person, regardless of age, national origin, race, creed, religion, gender, sexual orientation, immigration, or economic status; and

WHEREAS, Incorporating communities' existing experts and trusted sources of support into efforts to fully serve survivors will develop a criminal justice system response that is truly accessible and appropriate for all victims of crime; and

WHEREAS, With the unwavering support of their communities and victim service providers behind them, survivors will be empowered to face their grief, loss, fear, anger, and hope without fear of judgment, and will feel understood, heard, and respected; and

WHEREAS, Serving victims and rebuilding their trust restores hope to victims and survivors, as well as supports thriving communities; and

WHEREAS, Engaging a broader array of healthcare providers, community leaders, faith organizations, educators and businesses can provide new links between victims and services that improve their safety, healing, and access to justice; and

WHEREAS, Honoring the rights of victims, including the rights to be heard and to be treated with fairness, dignity, and respect, and working to meet their needs rebuilds their trust in the criminal justice and social service systems; and

WHEREAS, National Crime Victims' Rights Week provides an opportunity to recommit to ensuring that all victims of crime - especially those who are challenging to reach or serve - are offered culturally and linguistically accessible and appropriate services in the aftermath of crime; and

WHEREAS, Rensselaer County is hereby dedicated to strengthening victims and survivors in the aftermath of crime, building resilience in our communities and our victim responders, and working for a better future for all victims and survivors; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That we reaffirm Rensselaer County's commitment to creating a victim service and criminal justice response that assists all victims of crime during Crime Victims' Rights Week and throughout the year; and, be it further

RESOLVED, That we express our sincere gratitude and appreciation for those community members, victim service providers, and criminal justice professionals who are committed to improving our response to all victims of crime so that they may find relevant assistance, support, justice, and peace; and, be it further

RESOLVED, That the Clerk of the Legislature is hereby directed to transmit a certified copy of this resolution to the Office of the Rensselaer County District Attorney.

RESOLUTION RECOGNIZING THE MONTH OF APRIL 2024 AS SEXUAL ASSAULT AWARENESS MONTH IN RENSSELAER COUNTY

WHEREAS, Sexual Assault Awareness Month (SAAM) is an annual campaign to raise public awareness about sexual assault and educate communities and individuals on how to prevent sexual violence; and

WHEREAS, Each year during the month of April, state, community based organizations, rape crisis centers, government agencies, businesses, campuses and individuals plan events and activities to highlight sexual violence, including child sexual abuse, sex trafficking and stalking as a public health, human rights and social justice issue and reinforce the need for prevention efforts; and

WHEREAS, A sexual violence act is committed every 98 seconds in the United States according to law enforcement statistics. Women ages 16-19 are four times more likely than the general population to be victims of rape or sexual assault; and 70% of rapes are committed by someone the victim knows; 33% of adults with intellectual disabilities have experienced sexual violence; and 47% of all transgender people have been sexually assaulted at some point in their life; and

WHEREAS, As early as 1976, "Take Back the Night" marches rallied women in organized protest to highlight the violence and fear that women encountered walking the streets at night. Over time these events coordinated a movement across the United States and broader awareness of violence against women in all forms began to occur; and

WHEREAS, President Obama was the first United States president to declare April as Sexual Awareness Month in a proclamation dated April 1, 2010; and

WHEREAS, The 2024 theme is "Building Connected Communities": Building community is powerful. Community creates a sense of belonging and reminds us of how our beliefs, choices and actions impact one another. At the center of building communities is ensuring our communities are safe, inclusive, and equitable. Racism, sexism, classism, heterosexism, ageism, ableism, and other forms of oppression contribute to a higher rate of sexual harassment, assault, and abuse. We must address all abuses of power to prevent sexual violence, in our relationships, communities, and society; and

WHEREAS, Recognizing that the prevention of sexual violence and supporting its survivors is a shared responsibility among all community members. In addition, lifting the stigma around sexual assault will encourage victims to come forward and prosecute attackers and allow authorities to provide victims assistance and help the healing process; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That this Legislative Body recognizes April 2024 as Sexual Assault Awareness Month in Rensselaer County and endeavors to promote that each day of the month and throughout the year is an opportunity to build equity and respect within the community, workplace, and create change for the future and take us one step closer to a culture without sexual violence.

RESOLUTION URGING RESTORATION OF CHIPS FUNDING FOR CRITICAL INFRASTRUCTURE INVESTMENT

WHEREAS, Governor Kathy Hochul's proposed budget inadequately addresses critical infrastructure needs; and

WHEREAS, Investing in our local roads is integral to fostering the future well-being of our communities; and
